DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are indefinite because the scope of the term "slightly" is a relative term lacking proper comparative basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1, 2, 4 and 53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Baum et al (US Patent No 6,891,127).

Baum et al teach a method as claimed. See the entire document, especially Figures 1, 2, 4, 5, 5A, 7, 9a-c, 11 and the related description and column 6, lines 33-50, column 9, line 52 – column 10, line 40, column 10, lines 57-64, especially Figures 9a-c, 11 and the related description, column 9, line 52 – column 10, line 40, column 10, lines 57-64.

It is noted that the applied document teaches embodiments of the cleaning where the liquid cleaning and the electromagnetic cleaning are conducted in the same station.

5. Applicant cannot rely upon the foreign priority papers to overcome this rejection because a translation of said papers has not been made of record in accordance with 37 CFR 1.55. See MPEP § 201.15.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

9. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Baum et al (US Patent No 6,891,127) in view of any one of US Patents 4,702,195, 4,778,976, 4,834,280, and 5,138,896.

Both Baum et al patents teach the claimed method except for the use of spraying.

However, it was well-known in the art that spraying is a conventional way for fluid application and is an alternative to immersing.

It would have been obvious to an ordinary artisan at the time the invention was made to use spraying instead of immersion disclosed by Baum et al patents with reasonable expectation of success because it was a conventional method for liquid application and because it was conventionally used in the art of cleaning of welding torches for application of treatment fluids, as evidenced by any one of US Patents 4,702,195, 4,778,976, 4,834,280, and 5,138,896.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments filed 12/22/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicants argue that in Baum the position of the torch between the steps of wetting the tip and the step of electromagnetic spatter removal must be changed. The applicants further allege that such makes it necessary to program the robotic device.

The applicants fail to cite any part of Baum et al to support their allegation.

The arguments are not found persuasive.

First, the applicants' statement is not supported.

Second, in contrast to the applicants' statement, Baum et al teach cleaning at the same station. See at least Figures 9a-c, 11 and the related description, column 9, line 52 – column 10, line 40, column 10, lines 57-64.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
